

EAPC Research Conference Berne, Switzerland: May 24 – 26, 2018

General terms and conditions

The following General terms and conditions shall apply to participants of the EAPC Research Conference 2018 hereafter called «congress»:

Registration

Registration is binding. Participation fees are due prior to the opening of the congress and have to be paid by credit card or bank transfer.

Cancellation of registration

Cancellation received prior to March 16th, 2018 shall result in handling fees of CHF 50.- which shall not be refunded/remain due.

If cancellation is received from March 16th, 2018 onwards or in case of absence/failure to show up, registration fees are not refunded/remain due.

These conditions apply to all reasons leading to inability to attend the conference, including for example illness, accident, etc.

However it is possible to register a replacement. There will be no additional charges until 30 days before the congress. After this period, a processing fee of CHF 50.- will be charged.

Protection of privacy

All personal information is treated with strict confidentiality. As a matter of principle the information gathered will not be disclosed to third parties and only used in connection with the congress (including the distribution of a printed participants' list to all sponsors on site).

However all participants agree to the organizer using their data for information purposes in relation with other congresses/conferences or disclosing their data to sponsors upon request to be used once in connection with the congress/conference.

Safety regulations and implementing rules

Upon registration participants acknowledge the regulations regarding safety, access and other implementing rules related to the congress and declare to agree that she/he may be excluded from the congress without compensation in the event that these regulations are not adhered to.

Cancellation of the congress

Should the congress be cancelled (for reasons other than force majeure), participants may apply for a refund of the amount already paid at the congress organisers within 30 days following the announcement of the cancellation. The amount already paid will be entirely refunded.

Force majeure

If political or economical incidents, pandemia or force majeure in general prevent the congress from taking place or impede it, participants are not entitled to claim damages from the event organiser.

Insurance

Insurance is the responsibility of the participant. Each participant is liable for all injury to persons or damage to property he or she causes.

Place of delivery and jurisdiction

In case of disagreements, the contract parties are subject to due process course of law of the canton of Zug. Only Swiss law is applicable in court.

Steinhausen, July 2017

Congress organisation:

Medworld AG
Sennweidstrasse 46
CH-6312 Steinhausen
Phone +41 41 748 23 00

www.medworld.ch
www.congress-info.ch

